Professional training in hunting tourism for further education

Short-term joint staff training event

13. – 15. 6. 2023 in Prague, Czech Republic

HUNTOUR team organizes a short-term joint staff training event for people who want to know more about hunting tourism and its development in different regions.

During the event participants will be trained in hunting tourism terminology, hunting tourism economic impacts and methods for evaluation, hunting tourism potential and factors for its determination and overall in the approach to the development of sustainable hunting tourism in individual countries with a focus on Europe. The program will include an excursion within Czech University of Life Sciences in Prague and local game management with regard to hunting tourism, or a visit to the center of Prague.

Travel costs will be partially covered by the HUNTOUR project. 3 people from a partner country, i.e. from the Czech Republic, Serbia, Finland and Hungary, will be selected for the event. Selection in the first round will be made based on the submission of a motivation letter during registration bellow. As part of the second round, an interview will take place, which will be focused mainly on the subsequent use of the acquired knowledge in the further education of students.
